Job Title (can slightly tweak titles based on what you're applying for – no one will find out or care)

- Lead with a company overview to borrow validity from the company's numbers to anchor the screener on something super impressive. E.g., sales, market cap, Fortune 500 status, # of users, # of employees, $ raised, etc.
- As [role], I [responsibilities that match the job description, including some high-level numbers if impressive].
 - Key Results: Use subbullets to list quantifiable key results for specific projects or responsibilities. E.g., revenue, cost savings, man hours saved, partners onboarded, customers/users, review rating, etc.
 - Sub-bullets are for more detail if needed, like KPIs, your tech stack, notable clients, or project examples.

Company Name #3

(idea: remove months across the entire resume to better hide work gaps) Month Year – Month

Year

Job Title

City, ST (or just put "Remote")

- Core responsibility #1 / key results / high level summary. I like ending bullet points with periods vs without.
- Core responsibility #2. Don't feel the need to write too much about jobs from over 5 years in the past.

Most Recent Job Title | Month, Year – Present

- If you've been promoted / have held multiple titles at one company, put dates in italics next to each title like so.
- Core responsibility #2. As the jobs get older in your timeline, they're less relevant and need fewer bullet points.

Prior Job Title | Month, Year – Month, Year

- Prior to my promotion to [recent title], I...[core responsibility #1]. Older job, less relevancy, 1 bullet is fine.

Company Name #5

Month Year – Month

Year

Job Title

- Core responsibility #1. For past jobs with zero or little relevance, save space by skipping any bullet points.

EDUCATION (for early-career candidates with less work experience, you can put this section first before WORK)

University Name

Graduation Month, Year

Degree (e.g., Bachelor of Science), Major (e.g., Computer Science)

- Any other fun stuff like a minor, varsity sports, fraternity/sorority, or something that gives you a little color.

CERTIFICATIONS, SKILLS & INTERESTS (can put Skills / Certifications first if transitioning your career)

- Certifications: If you have relevant ones; otherwise, delete this bullet + delete "CERTIFICATIONS" above.
- Technologies: If you have a lot of hard skills vs soft skills, you can break them out into two different bullets.
- Skills (plug in your own and rearrange depending on role): Strategic Planning; Brand Marketing; Copywriting; Hiring
